NEIGHBORHOOD BRASSERIE INTRODUCES “PLATES FOR DEUX”

Affordable Daily Cuisine Specials for Couples

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.—January 5, 2008 — Sharing a good meal and a glass of wine is where many romances start, grow stronger and even rekindle. Now couples can enjoy a delicious gourmet meal for two, with a half carafe of wine and dessert at the popular Metro Brasserie & Bar in Southbridge.

The well-priced daily specials are $42 for two, including entrée, wine and warm beignets with three dipping choices: nutella, vanilla cream or raspberry coulis.

The new eatery also provides an inviting casually stylish ambiance in the city’s hottest downtown location. Open for breakfast, lunch, dinner and late night, Metro Brasserie is an authentic brasserie with New Orleans-inspired fare. The “Plates for Deux” are available for early evening and late night dining as well.

About Metro Brasserie

A friendly “neighborhood eatery,” Metro Brasserie overlooks Stetson Park and the Arizona Canal. Under the direction of Executive Chef Matthew Taylor, Metro serves breakfast, lunch, dinner seven-days-a-week, and its menu proves that affordable food and creative cuisine are not mutually exclusive. Adding to the fun atmosphere and cool energy is a full-service bar, raw bar and late night menus. Chef Taylor drew from his top-notch New Orleans-style cooking experience and infused the new menu with French Country cooking techniques and flavors of the Deep South. The result is a menu with true brasserie character: hearty, traditional fare with a fresh attitude. Hours of operation are Thursday through Sunday 7am-2am and Monday through Wednesday 7am-midnight. Metro Brasserie is located at 7114 E. Stetson Drive, Suite 105 Scottsdale, AZ 85251. For more information call 480-994-3663 or visit metrosouthbridge.com.

SouthBridge Restaurant Group

Frederick and Jennifer Unger established the SouthBridge Restaurant Group in 2007. The restaurant portfolio includes Metro Brasserie, Canal and Estate House--all located at SouthBridge, a 134,000 sq. ft. urban district in downtown Scottsdale. Unger also owns Spring Creek Development, a Scottsdale-based development firm specializing in the restoration and management of real estate, including fine dining restaurants, boutique hotels, office and retail. The company’s signature projects include the redevelopment of the Royal Palms Hotel and Casitas, in Phoenix and restoration of the historic Hermosa Inn in Paradise Valley.
